

Lecturer in Acting

MGA Academy of Performing Arts

Introduction

MGA is a specialist independent CDMT accredited performing arts institution. The institution offers foundation, BA, and MA programmes across the performing arts. The programmes are;

- Foundation Acting
- Foundation Dance
- Foundation Musical Theatre
- BA Hons Acting
- BA Hons Acting (Film and Television)
- BA Hons Dance (Commercial)
- BA Hons Dance (Contemporary)
- BA Hons Musical Theatre
- MA Performance (Theatre Making)
- MA Performance (Dance and Choreography)

The foundation programmes are validated by the Scottish Qualifications Authority, the BA and MA programmes are validated by Bath Spa University. The institution currently has around 170 students and aims to get to 400 within the next four years. This will be achieved by the introduction of new pathways on our current provision and developing Film and Television as a new subject area.

MGA has recently moved to an outstanding new 30,000 sq. ft campus which has 18 studios including 5 with fully sprung floors. MGA is currently in the process of developing plans for a new performance complex.

MGA is driven by the vision to create flexible, professional, imaginative performers and performance makers. MGA has an outstanding record of graduate employment with graduates working in the West End, major tours, film, and Television and on top line cruise ships.

Who are we looking for?

We are looking for someone with experience of both higher education and importantly substantial experience of professional theatre and/or film and tv. We are looking for someone who has the vision and expertise to inspire our students and to help MGA grow, and further enhance the institute's position as one of Scotland's leading performing arts training centres.

We are looking for someone who has ambition, imagination, rigour, and a desire to do something special.

Person Specification

	Essential (E) or Desirable (D)	Where Demonstrated
Qualifications
BA (Hons) Degree in related area	E	Application
MA / MSc / MFA in related area	D	Application
HE teaching qualification or fellowship of HEA	D	Application
Ph.D. or Equivalent	D	Application
Professional Experience
A substantial body of professional work in theatre	E	Application
A clear understanding of professional industry working practices	E	Application
A substantial network within the performing arts economy	E	Application
Higher Education Teaching Experience
Successful experience of delivery in vocation undergraduate performing arts higher education (teaching and assessment)	E	Application
Successful experience of delivery in postgraduate performing arts higher education (teaching and assessment)	D	Application
Successful experience of module leadership in higher education	D	Application
Successful experience of working within and operating HE quality assurance systems	D	Application
A clear coherent vision for actor training and a successful experience of programme / module curriculum development	D	Application
Experience of working as an external examiner for a related programme	D	Application
Leadership and Management
Successful management of delegated financial budgets	D	Application
Successful experience of timetabling and resource management	D	Application
Successful experience of staff line management	D	Application
Successful experience of managing and chairing meetings	D	Application
Other
Ability to effectively work as part of a team	E	Application
Ability to work collaboratively across disciplines	E	Application
Ability to communicate in writing with an eye for detail	E	Application
Ability to contribute to student recruitment and manage auditions	E	Application

Job Description

Responsible to:	Head of Acting
Responsible for:	VLs in Teaching Team
Working with:	Other Team members
Salary	£35,000
Leave entitlement	35 Days
Probationary Period	6 months
Roles and Responsibilities
Academic Leadership
As part of the programme team contribute to the operational management of the subject area at both undergraduate and postgraduate levels (Subject to qualifications held) as a module leader.
Teaching
To teach a range of disciplines across the subject area at undergraduate and postgraduate levels. It is anticipated that the successful applicant will principally be involved with teaching acting technique, however the post should also be able to deliver a range of disciplines including at least three of the following; <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Theatre Direction • Theatre History • Critical and Contextual studies • Acting for the camera • Voice • Movement • Devising / theatre making • Interdisciplinary Practice
Quality Assurance and Enhancement
The all teaching staff have a shared is responsibility for quality assurance and enhancement procedures and systems. This includes but not limited to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Membership programme board • Oversight and monitoring of assessment processes (as a module leader) • Attendance at University Assessment Boards (as a module leader) • Liaison with University External Examiners (as a module leader) • Liaison with University Link tutors (as a module leader) • Teaching Observations • Contribute to the production of Annual Programme Review Document • Membership of Teaching and Learning Board (On rotation)

Institutional Responsibilities
In addition to subject area / programme responsibilities the postholder has also collegiate responsibilities for the overall operation of the Institute's education provision through membership of a range of committees or working groups
Student Recruitment
Through membership of the Admissions Committee (on rotation) the postholder will contribute to the overall strategy for student recruitment and auditions. More specifically the postholder will be contribute to student auditions for their programmes. On occasions the postholder will be required to attend open days, attend recruitment events, and visit feeder schools.

How to apply

Closing Date and Time – 4.00pm Friday 12th April 2024

There is no application form for this post, applicants should send a CV, covering letter and details of three referees, including most recent employer to recruitment@themgaacademy.com

(Please note, references will not be asked for until after the interview process has been completed)